(d) whether any additional quota of sugar was already being demanded?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS, FOOD AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (DR. AKHILESH PRASAD SINGH): (a) and (b) No reports of non-availability of sugar in the market have been received by the Government.

(c) Import is under O.G.L. (Open General Licence) and is undertaken by sugar factories as per the commercial prudence after assessment of position with regard to stock of sugar, held by them, prospect of sugar production, requirement of sugar and consumption, international and domestic prices and other relevant factors including the provision of the EXIM policy. Sugar is importable @ 60% ad valorem and Rs. 850/- per M.T. (Countervailing Duty).

(d) The free sale quota of sugar for the quarter January-March, 2005 has already been enhanced by 4 lakh M.Ts.

Diversion of foodgrains from FCI godowns
